My Name is: Mr Still

SRP Teacher and Maths Lead

What is your job at Leybourne Chase?

My new job at Leybourne Chase is supporting children within our SRP in school. However, there is a strong chance I will spend time in lots of classrooms supporting as many children as possible.

I also am in charge of Maths across the school.

What did you want to be when you were younger?

When I was five, I wanted to be a pizza-delivery driver. Then, I wanted to be a professional footballer. Finally, before becoming a teacher, I was interested in being a sports journalist – I love all sport!

What made you want to become a teacher?

I always loved spending time with my younger brothers and sisters. I also knew that whatever I ended up doing later in my life I wanted to help as many people as possible. So, teaching seemed to be the best option.

What is your favourite food?

Well most people know that I have a serious addiction to chocolate! But other than that, I would say a beautifully cooked burger is the best.

What is your least favourite food?

I actually eat pretty much anything – that's often my problem. But I'm allergic to most berries.

What hobbies do you enjoy?

I love playing football. It is my favourite thing to do. But I also enjoy reading, watching tv, going to the cinema, quizzing with friends and spending time with my one-year old son, Oscar.

Do you have any pets? If not, what pet would you like?

I have a ten-year old dog called Jack. He is a cross between a Jack Russell and a Chihuahua – he's a Jackhuahua.

What do you like best about teaching at Leybourne Chase?

The best thing about Leybourne Chase is that I love coming to work every single day. Everyone works together as a team and I've made some amazing friendships in the short time I've been here.

What were your favourite subjects when you were at school?

I loved school and I still love learning now. Maths and PE were always my favourite lessons but writing in English was probably my best skill.

What is your favourite book and why?

I love Wolf Brother by Michelle Paver because it was the very first book that I taught from start to finish to a whole class.

What is your favourite place in the world, and why?

In terms of going away, Greece and its islands are my favourite holiday – I love the food and the weather! But in England, my Grandparent's house is my favourite place to be as I spent most of my childhood with them and it's where I feel safe.

If you were on a desert island, what would you take with you?

All the books that I never have time to sit and enjoy! Oh, and a hat because my bald head burns in the sun very easily!

If you could give a message to the children starting school, what would it be?

I would say that I am quite new to the school and it didn't take very long at all to feel at home and supported by everyone. If you're ever not feeling sure on what to do or where to go, then anyone and everyone will help.
