

Snow White and the 7 Dwarves, by Taylor, Valley Invicta Primary School at Leybourne Chase

Once upon a time there lived a dwarf called Nosy. He was the nosiest of the seven dwarves. He returned from work one day and found a beautiful young lady asleep on HIS bed.

"Who are you" said Nosy the most shocked he has ever been.

"I don't know who she is, but I don't like her, she cannot stay" said grumpy loudly. The dwarves cottage was filthy, so they quickly swept the mess under the beds in the hope that Snow White wouldn't notice when she woke up. They went off to work and found obsidian, diamonds AND gold.

When they returned they were all starving after working so hard, so they were delighted to find a lovely warm apple pie sitting waiting for them. Snow White seemed to have disappeared, but it smelt so delicious they could not resist tucking in.

Moments later, the dwarves were unconscious in a heap on the floor. Snow White crept out of her hiding place and stole the precious jewels from the dwarves cart. She returned to the castle and went shopping with her step-mother.
